Entreprise historique de fabrication de pièces métalliques

Entreprise historique produisant et distribuant des produits métalliques destinés à l'industrie hydraulique, mécanique, électronique, automobile et machines agricoles selon les normes de certification environnementale (UNI EN ISO 9001).

Les entreprises historiques de fabrication de pièces métalliques ont joué un rôle essentiel dans le développement de l'industrialisation et du développement des infrastructures. Ces entreprises ont contribué aux progrès de la technologie, des transports et de la construction. Fortes d'un riche héritage qui remonte à plusieurs siècles, les entreprises historiques de fabrication de pièces métalliques ont été témoins et adaptées aux nombreux changements de l'industrie.

Ces entreprises ont joué un rôle déterminant dans le développement de divers composants métalliques, tels que des engrenages, des roulements, des essieux et des vannes, qui font partie intégrante des machines et équipements utilisés dans des secteurs tels que la fabrication, les transports et l'énergie. Ils ont étendu leurs capacités au fil du temps, en intégrant les progrès des pratiques d'ingénierie et des matériaux pour garantir la production de pièces métalliques durables et de haute qualité.

L'entreprise dispose de 45 tours automatiques et d'un département de taraudage et de gaufrage avec 30 machines qui garantissent la production de différentes solutions de produits.

L'entreprise produit 50 millions de pièces tournées par an. En 2020, malgré les difficultés de la pandémie, elle a mis en œuvre un projet de refonte de sa structure pour améliorer la traçabilité des processus, garantir la qualité des produits propres et réduire l'impact environnemental et s'est spécialisée dans le traitement de petites pièces métalliques de retour. .
